The Daily Union Vedette.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 3, 1896.

THE NEWS.

Our dispatches to day contain very little news of interest.

The gold market in New York is less feverish than usual, that article being on the decline.

The Canadian Fenian excitement has not abated.

The continued influx of gold from the United States increases confidence in Europe of the permanency of peace in America.

Rear Admiral Francis H. Gregory, of the U. S. Navy, died suddenly on the 4th inst.

Our exchanges from the East show a gradual decrease of cholera, and the close approach of winter promises a speedy riddance of that pestilence.

From California.

(From the Enterprise.)

San Francisco, Sept. 28. The Administration Union party have issued a lengthy address to the people, on the issues existing between the Administration and Congress. They argue at length that the war was prosecuted simply for the restoration of the Union; that the legal existence of the Southern Confederacy was never recognized; that no States were ever out of the Union; and that President Johnson is pursuing the policy inaugurated by Lincoln; and that the country, in point of law and political organization, is the same as it was in 1860, before the war. The address closes with an appeal to the voters of California, urging the formation of Clubs and County Committees, in order that an effective support may be given to the President's policy, and inviting the cooperation of all persons who endorse the views put forth by the Committee. The address is signed by Z. J. Gunnison, Charles Mackay, John Center, George W. Hager, W. H. Culver, Delos Lake, Edward Stanley, J. W. Wilcox, E. O. Brown, W. S. Whitney, Chairman, and I. M. Thorne, Secretary.

Michael Fride, a workman engaged in excavating on Third street, near Bryant, had two of his ribs broken and received other serious injuries by being buried under a land slide yesterday afternoon. Mr. Cameron, the contractor, was also buried, but escaped with slight injuries.

Charles E. Daggs died suddenly day before yesterday morning. He complained of feeling unwell and laid down, and was discovered in a few minutes afterward to be in a dying condition.

John Patton, a lad between four and five years of age, was run over by one of the South Park cars on Wednesday evening, and one of his feet and legs terribly crushed.

The second Artillery band serenaded Queen Emma last evening, at the Occidental Hotel. Upon the band playing "God Save the Queen," the acknowledged compliment by making her appearance on the balcony.

In the County Court, yesterday morning, the cases of T. M. Hyton and others, charged with publishing and selling that filthy sheet, the Mazepa, were continued for the term.

The missing steamer Continental, with seventy five passengers, mostly Imperial refugees from Mazatlan and Guaymas, arrived yesterday, bringing highly important news from Sonora and Sinaloa.

Sonora has been completely rescued from Imperial rule. The work has been done by General Martinez, with an army of Mexican Republicans and the American Legion.

Colonel Fister, the French commander in Sonora, having failed in an expedition against Fresco, committed suicide.

Lanberg then assumed command of the Imperial forces. Martinez then came up with him at Guadalupe, and after a severe contest the Imperialists were utterly routed. Lanberg was slain. Martinez then pushed on to Ures, where an Imperial garrison of three hundred men was attacked and cut to pieces.

On the 15th of September the victorious General entered Guaymas, the Imperialists having previously evacuated the place.

The United States steamer Saranac arrived in the harbor the same day, and there was a general jubilee on the redemption of Sonora.

The evacuation of Mazatlan by the French is supposed to have taken place, but there is no positive intelligence to that effect.

On the 11th of September a desperate fight occurred near the Pacific, caused by an attempt made by the French to dislodge Corona's forces. The French were so roughly handled that they retreated to their inner fortifications, leaving Corona's besieging lines intact.

It is said that the California reinforcements inspired the Mexican Liberals with a courage and vigor they had not hitherto displayed.

These successes promise the speedy expulsions of the French from the Pacific States of Mexico, and come in good time to strengthen the impression made upon the Imperial mind by the Liberal victories on the Rio Grande.

PROTECTION AGAINST INDIAN DEPRIVATIONS ON THE FRONTIER.—Breast Major General P. St. George Cooke, commanding the Department of the Platte, recently issued an order directing commanders building military posts in that department to so construct them that a few men shall be sufficient for defense, enabling the greater part of the garrison to act far beyond their only object being to protect emigration, the mails, the telegraph lines, commerce travel, and settlements. Commanders are required to vigilantly and devotedly consider and adopt the best measures for these objects, by patrols, detachments, etc., without waiting for special orders to move, in case of an emergency in which immediate action is essential. On the mail and telegraph lines, where deemed necessary or applied for, they will make arrangements that the commissaries furnish the necessary shelter and accommodation for the men, so that small detachments may be placed at stations extending a half way to the next fort, for defense of houses and animals, and in some cases these parties serving also as escorts. —Washington Chronicle, 17th ult.

MANHATTEN MOVING, a girl, is creating some sensation in Paris. She replies to questions in eighteen languages and comes out strong in orthography.

Monetary matters in New York.

Death of Rear Admiral Gregory, U. S. N.

Santa Anna Denounced as a French Spy.

Ecclesiastical Proceedings in New York.

New York, Oct. 3.

The Post's money article says there is a slight lull in the speculative feeling in Wall street, but whether the fever has yet spent its force is by no means certain. Gold is lower and less active today; it is also more plentiful for delivery. The loan market is more active and the symptoms developed the last few days are interpreted by conservative bankers to presage a growing activity which may in a little time produce if unchecked, temporary stringency. The stock market is less active. Government bonds are steady, and railroad shares irregular and lower.

New York, Oct. 3.

The Java took out for Europe to day $92,153 in silver.

Ottawa, C. W. Oct. 3.

The Executive Council met for several hours last night. It is reported that important dispatches relative to the Fenians were received.

The Board of Trade passed a resolution that American and British silver will be taken hereafter at four per cent. discount.

New York, Oct. 3.

The London Review has the following: The influx of gold to the United States has continued on a somewhat larger scale than had been looked for. The most satisfactory feature in the movement is the confidence that it shows in the permanency of the peace in America. That is, as far as investors are concerned, the renewal of a civil war is considered in the highest degree remote.

New York, Oct. 4.

Rear Admiral Francis H. Gregory of the U. S. Navy, died very suddenly at 1 o'clock this morning in Brooklyn.

New York, Oct. 4.

The Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church held their thirty-first anniversary meeting at the Church of Ascension in this city. The Committee reports of the diocese and foreign missions were read and accepted. The annual sermon was delivered in the morning by Right Rev. H. C. Ladd, D. D., Missionary Bishop of the Southwest. A centenary was held last evening in the Seventh Street Methodist Episcopal Church. Addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Woodruff, Rev. A. A. Boone, Rev. L. S. Wood and others. The consecration of Rev. Channing Moore Williams, as Missionary Bishop to China and Japan, took place yesterday at St. John's Episcopal Church in this city. Twenty-four bishops were present, and upwards of one hundred ministers. The ceremony was of a very impressive and interesting character.

The corner stone of one of the new church for the use of Rev. Osgood's congregation was laid yesterday at the corner of Park Avenue and Thirtieth street. Appropriate addresses were delivered by Doctors Osgood, Hollows and Chapin, and a large collection of articles deposited under the stone.

The Headquarters of Santa Anna continue to be visited by Geo. A. Lickley, President of the Knights of the Golden Circle, has offered his services and sympathy to the cause. General Sweeney had a long interview with the old chieftain yesterday on the subject of Fenian enlistments.

The adherent of General Ortega, the rival claimant to the distinguished honor of delivering the Mexican Republic exhibits a bitter hatred of Santa Anna. They claim he is a spy of the French Government, and they have documents to prove it. Ortega will leave the city soon for Mexico.

RETIARDS.—The grand billiard tournament, wherein the State and provincial champions of America have entered to contest for a number of valuable prizes and the championship of champions, was held recently at the Hippodrome, in Fourteenth street, New York.

There was a fair audience present, including quite a number of ladies. There are States represented in the present tournament, and it will undoubtedly be the most interesting exposition of the game ever witnessed in this country. The prizes, which are valued at $2,400, include a gold-mounted cue, to be known as the "Cue of 1866," and to be designated the "Champion of the Champions," a richly carved and gilded standard American billiard table; a massive service of silver, comprising two goblets, a pitcher and a salver fashioned in imitation of a billiard table; and an elegant gold watch and chain, the adornments of which are emblematic of billiards.

Three games were played; the first being the first game of the tournament proper, between E. J. Plunkett, champion of Pennsylvania, and J. B. Cyrille Dion, champion of Canada; the next between Philip Tiesman, of Cincinnati, and John McDevitt, of New York; and the last between James Palmer, of Philadelphia, and Michael Phelan, of this city. The game between Plunkett and Dion was the American canon, 600 points up, scoring his first hundred at the seventh inning, his second at the seventeenth, and his third at the thirty-first. His adversary turned the first hundred at the twelfth inning, and the second at the twenty-fourth. Neither had thus far made any high runs or shown more than ordinary play. But Dion now counted runs of 63 and 93, passing his opponent at the thirty-first inning and winning the game at the forty-second, the count being 500 to 357. Plunkett's highest runs were 42, 39 and 35. McDevitt did not come up to the average of his game, whereas Tiesman played very finely. The game was 250 points up. Tiesman made runs of 40, 31, 36, 35, 34 and 37, winning at the seventeenth inning, while McDevitt had counted but 78. His highest run was 18. The concluding game, which was 100 points up, was won by Palmer in twenty innings, beating Palmer by two points.

An exchange says, sixteen pounds of tobacco, three gross of matches, eight pounds of pepper, and three bottles of whisky, were found under the skirts of three females, by the custom house officer at Ogdensburgh. Was that all?

California Items.

THE Sacramento Union gives us the following budget of news from California:

On the 1st of August the Liberal General, Martinez, marched to attack Ures, which was defended by Gen. Lanberg, and Tanori, the Yaqui Indian. The principal fight took place on the 4th inst., at Guadalupe, a small town, some eight leagues from Ures. It was very severely contested, but ended in the utter defeat and rout of the Imperialists. Lanberg was killed, and Tanori escaped to Guaymas, where he arrived on the 10th with half a dozen men. When the death of Lanberg was reported to Martinez he discredited it, whereupon a Mexican force up, dragging the body of the unfortunate General with his rifle. The body was afterward hung to a tree, and death threatened to any person who should cut it down. On the same day Martinez moved on to Ures, which was garrisoned by some 300 men, who, ignorant of the fight at Guadalupe, gave battle and were utterly cut to pieces. No quarter was given, and the place was sacked by the soldiers.

On the 11th instant notice was given that Guaymas would be evacuated on the 13th, and that those of the inhabitants could be taken who chose to go. A fearful scene was drawn of the destruction of life and property that would ensue on the arrival of the Liberals. Many poor people fled the place, and all French merchants took refuge on board ships of war. On the 13th the transport Rhin and another vessel sailed, crowded with troops and passengers. Before leaving, the French filled several boats with arms and ammunition for the Yaqui Indians, telling them that after their departure the city would be at their mercy, and there was plenty of booty for them. The utmost consternation prevailed when the dastardly act was known in the city. The Americans placed themselves under the order of General Connor, a home guard was organized, and every precaution taken to guard against surprise. The house of the Consul was crowded with people seeking protection, and his warehouses filled with merchandise and personal effects. On the evening of the 14th the city was illuminated, and on the morning of the 15th nearly half the houses were decorated with American flags. That day, at 9 a. m., General Martinez entered the city with a small body of cavalry, the greater portion of his force having been sent to clean out the Yaqui Indians. Soon after his arrival he took formal possession of the place, and issued a proclamation guaranteeing protection in their persons and property to all who remained quietly at home, and denouncing in strong terms the misrepresentations made by the French on their departure. An American man-of-war was in the harbor, the Saranac having that morning arrived.

A letter from an Imperialist to the Alta says the fighting was of the most desperate character, hand to hand, every all killed or wounded being disabled with bayonets, sabres or the machete. The Chasseurs d'Afrique, mounted on superb Arabian horses, in going out to the relief of Palos Prietas, fell into Corona's cavalry and were routed, with the loss of many horses and a considerable number of men. Colonel Grenados, of the Liberals, had four horses and mules killed under him, and his clothing was riddled with balls, but he was not wounded.

Alonso Ridley, a California mercenary, received a commission as Captain in the Imperial army for good conduct on the field.

In Nevada the duellists have been sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail—Hearst to twenty days and Suchet to twenty-one days.

William Henderson was killed by the caving of a bank in the American claims at Sebastopol, Bridgeport township, on Monday, September 24th.

From Montana.

An Indian agent at Ft. Benton has a quantity of powder and lead for distribution among friendly (?) Indians. The Chinese have a private gambling house their own in Virginia City. 450 men are engaged in mining in Summit City.

On the 13th ult a man by the name of Mills, of the firm of Mills, Reade & Co., killed another person by the name of McDermitt at Highland Gulch. The Montana Democrat has an appropriate obituary on the death of Prof. Dimesdale. Much mining activity, mill-building and rich results, are the latest reports from Bannack City, Beaver Head County. It is one of the greatest gold and silver sections in Montana. William Fraher, teamster with Mauldin's train, was killed by Indians on the 1st ult. The Legislature meets at Virginia City on the first Monday in November.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of Montana met there last Monday. Business, says the Democrat, has been very quiet in Virginia, for a few days past, though the retail dealers are doing a "wholesome" business. Highland Gulch, newly discovered, is said to be "paying big." There went 304 passengers to the States by Heard & Co's fleet of Mackinaws. The following we find in the Democrat of the 27th: MARRIED.—In Virginia City, on Sunday, 23d of September, by the Rev. M. H. Kohn, Col. Samuel Kahn to Miss Sarah Kohn.

"The plighted word—the nuptial vow
Still lingers in the air;
The wild bird's song, and the flowers' sweet new
Smile round the happy pair.
May the line of health—the smile of joy,
All deep in beauty's bloom—
Be ever yours without alloy,
In pleasure and in gloom."

DEATH OF THE OLDEST PRINTER.—Samuel Goss died at Montpelier, Vt., on the 19th of August, aged 90 years. He served his apprenticeship as a printer, in the office of the Worcester Spy, published by Isaiah Thomas. In 1798 he printed a paper in Peacham, Vt., and in 1807 established the Montpelier Watchman, still in existence. It was the veteran's habit to visit the office twice a day during the war, to read the telegraph dispatches. His whole heart was in the great struggle, and his prayers were constant that victory would crown our arms. He lived to see the triumph of liberty, and he died in perfect peace with man and his Maker.

From the River.

R. B. Smith, proprietor of the St. Joseph Farmers' Pearl, has disappeared recently, and from letters found would lead to the idea that he had committed suicide. A new paper called the Leavenworth Commercial, devoted to the interests of the President's policy, is about being started at Leavenworth. Messrs. Prescott, Callahan and Hume are the publishers. The indefatigable personage, theatrical manager John S. Potter, has prophesied to the citizens of Omaha the erection of a new theater, and notifies them of an early visit accompanied by the popular actress Julia Dean. The Headquarters of the Department commanded by Major General Hancock is to be removed to St. Louis. The fair from Omaha to Kearney, per railroad, is $19. Freight, $1.90 to $1.50 per hundred pounds.

PETERA, of the Marysville, Kansas, Enterprise has been making a trip over the U. P. R. R. He doesn't seem to be pleased with the road, and says:

They don't make the best of time on the Leavenworth branch of the U. P. R. R. While we were on the cars the other day an old horse was attracted by a sack of corn that stood in the gateway of the baggage car, and only for his being a little lame he would have succeeded in catching up and taking a bite. In one of the passenger cars a passenger was weeping very bitterly. He was a young man of rather prepossessing appearance and poorly clad. We thought, judging from the "cry" that bedewed his cheek that he was in want, so we approached him and inquired as to the cause of his grief. He replied: "I am a convict, sir, going to Leavenworth to learn a trade under the State, and I'm afraid the cars won't make it in time to give me half a show to learn it."

A Paris letter, in speaking of the expenses of the Empress Charlotte, of Mexico, says: "Her passages for self and suite, from Mexico, cost 30,000 sterling francs, or the whole sum that we pay in greenbacks to the President's household. She came across the sea accompanied by fifteen men and a half dozen nurses. Her rooms at the Grand Hotel cost 500 francs a day, and this mission of hers will make Mexico in probably 2,000,000 of francs, even if she should leave to-morrow."

The great lake tunnel at Chicago will in all probability be completed this month, and preparations are now making for its formal opening. Ceremonies appropriate to the completion of so stupendous a work will be gotten up on a scale of great magnificence.

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The REGISTER is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic dispatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four central Territories.

Dissolution.—See notice of the partnership dissolution of the law firm of Thompson & Baskin.

J. M. THURMOND, Esq., who has been practicing at Egan Canon for several days is once more with us.

We suppose there can be no disputing the fact that the first Arctic expedition was got up by Noah.

Mr. SCHAEFFER, the celebrated foot traveler started for the West yesterday; he intends making the tour of Nevada, California and South America.

YESTERDAY we noticed Dr. Conger and Judge Fields in town. They have been out to the Cottonwood mines for several weeks, and we will endeavor to obtain some mining items from them for to-morrow's issue.

THE Springfield Republican says the lady for whom Senator Sumner, at rising 50 years of age, is going to cease to be a bachelor and soon marry, is Mrs. Sturges Hooper, daughter-in-law of Representative Hooper, of Boston, and a beautiful and accomplished young woman.

From the latest dispatches received from California, it is confidently expected that the French will leave the Pacific coast of Mexico as soon as the streams between San Blas and Tepic have fallen sufficiently to admit of the transportation of troops.

STAGE LINE.—In another column will be found the new advertisement of the Southern Mail and Express Line. The stages on this line are making the best of time and conveying good loads. Particular attention is called to the change of days of departure for Pahrnagat, Arizona and other through points.

CAPTAIN SCOSBY, late of the Fourth California Volunteers, died of apoplexy in Gila City, Mexico, on the 9th of August. He was one of the pioneers of California, and accompanied Col. Green, who with his command had tendered their services to the Republican Government of Mexico.

AT a spiritual seance, held recently, the medium explained that one rap in reply to a question signified "no," two raps, "partly," and three raps, "yes."—A spirit having announced its readiness to answer questions, was questioned as follows: "Where did you die?" Answer, "New York." "Were you married?" Two raps. "Partly," sang out an unspiritual wag in the audience.—Convulsions of laughter ensued.

PERSONAL.—Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting Col. Sawyer, who has been employed by the Government during the past two seasons. In opening the new Powder River route to Montana. The Colonel has just come down from Montana, where he arrived with his train a few weeks since. He reports that all the Indians on the new road are bitterly hostile. In one fight they killed a red-skin who was provided with a complete outfit of goods obtained at the Laramie Council, and he believes that troubles will continue until the Indians are thoroughly whipped. He left yesterday for the States, going via San Francisco, but there is a prospect of his returning to Utah in the spring and engaging in mining in this Territory.

THE City Liquor Store is daily crowded with old men and women, and young boys and girls, with tin buckets, old jugs and bottles, all after "red eye," all for medical purposes of course. Now we believe in obeying all legitimate laws and are not an advocate of every other house being a place to sell liquor; but when the city authorities and the church control and monopolize the whiskey trade there is no moral question involved, and when our modern Dogberry, with eyes looking "askance to the wall," delivers himself of a moral lecture to some poor culprit on the evil of intemperance, and then whispers to his "man Friday" to slip off with his black bottle to some familiar contraband place of liquid refreshment, to the existence of which this Justice is rendered conveniently blind—by means of the nature which his rubicund visage sufficiently indicates—we are led to exclaim, "O, whiskey, when of the proper consistency, thou art a jewel!"

GREAT INFUX OF MINERS FROM ABOARD.—The official return of emigrants who left Great Britain last year exhibits some interesting facts. There were 209,801 of them, of which number 147,258, or nearly three-quarters, came to the United States. 55 per cent. being Irish and most of the balance English. Among them were 455 coal miners, 64 mill-wrights, 8,962 miners and quarrymen, besides 41,994 general laborers, many of whom have gone to work in the placer diggings of the West, and may therefore now be classed as "miners." Owing to the recent stoppage of so many mines in England, the migration of miners from that country to this, during the current year, will probably be double that of last year. We extend to them a hearty welcome, and assure them and the thousands still remaining that the wealth of this country in minerals and metals is not one quarter developed, and that there is plenty of steady work and good pay here for all of them. We are industrious and sober.—American Journal of Mining.

From Idaho.

Chief Justice Lowe, of Iowa, who represents a large amount of capital stock, has been examining the mines of Idaho, and has returned to the States for the purpose of bringing out mills. Some parties in Idaho City are building their houses on wheels for protection in case of fire.

PROPOSALS.
SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
October 1st, 1886.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the undersigned at the office of J. L. ELLIS, at 12 o'clock M. for putting up a fence around the grounds east of the City Cemetery, said fence to take in 40 feet square, joining on the west the wall of the City Cemetery, making in all 120 feet fence; said fence to be of good pickets, of the light of six feet, with a gate in the center, as the south side, of 8 feet wide and 10 feet high with arched top, to be of the best timber. Bidders to state in their bids at what price they will fence the entire, with pickets, or the front side of 40 feet with pickets, the other two sides boards, of the same height. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. The fence to be completed in 30 days from award of contract. The work to be paid for in U. S. currency, when completed. Proposals to be addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Proposals for Cemetery Fence." Bidders are invited to be present when bids are opened.
